NEW RECORD.—Henry W. Dawson and George A. Chase, two of Washington's expert long-distance swimmers, yesterday broke their previous swimming record, made in 1899, from the Arsenal to this city, reducing the time forty minutes. Accompanied by W. A. Coats, who followed the swimmers in a rowboat, they lengthened their swim to Fort Washington, a distance of thirteen miles, making the trip in four hours and forty-five minutes. The last two miles of the journey were made against the incoming tide and in choppy and difficult water. Last year Chase and Dawson swam from the Arsenal to Alexandria in two hours and for y minutes. Yesterday they covered the distance in two hours flat.

A CLOSE CALL.—The steamer Wakefield narrowly escaped being struck by lightning last yesterday afternoon just after leaving this city en route to Washington. A bolt descended to the water directly astern of and on a point over which the vessel had just passed. Considerable excitement was occasioned among the large number of passengers on board, but no one was injured. Several women fainted and for some time there was much consternation. The officers of the boat, however, soon restored order.

CAMP MEETING.—The Loudoun camp meeting began its services Friday night at 8 o'clock. To sermon was preached by Rev. Kincaid. The tents are nicely fixed, and all are preparing for a good meeting. There are tents from Hamilton, Leesburg and Alexandria, a good preaching and plenty to sustain the inner man. Stages will run regular from Parcellville to the camp grounds.
